Dear Friend and Advertiser:

Thank you for your consideration in placing your business listing in the California Narcotic Officers' Association print and online directory.

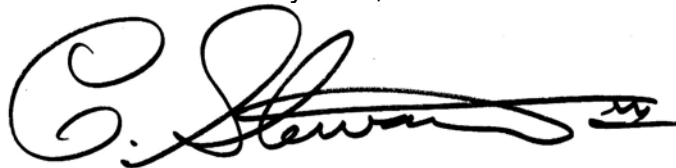

For over 47 years, CNOA has offered the finest training available in all areas of law enforcement activities to the dedicated men and women who are our first line of defense against crime and the proliferation of illegal drugs in our state.

CNOA has grown to become the largest non-profit Training Association in California, with over 7,000 members. Our print and online business directory is distributed to over 7,000 members and friends of this association. Our members include local, state, and federal peace officers, prosecutors, law enforcement personnel, and other national and international associates.

You can visit www.CNOA.org to find out more. Just click on "Business Directory".

I encourage you to take full advantage of reaching out to these potential new customers.

Best wishes and stay safe,

Joe Stewart, Executive Director
